North American Briquetting Leader Expands Team to Accommodate Growth
RUF US, Inc. Hires Industry Veteran to Lead Metal Briquetter Sales

NORTH OLMSTED, OH (April 16, 2012)—RUF US, Inc. is pleased to announce the expansion of their team with industry veteran Bob Kimber. RUF US, Inc. is North America's premier provider of industrial briquetting systems. To accommodate recent growth and enhance service capabilities, RUF has added Bob Kimber as the Metal Product Manager to its talented team of professionals.

As Metal Product Manager, Kimber is responsible for sales and customer relations for all metal briquetter customers in North America. Before joining RUF, Kimber worked as the Regional Sales Manager for Mayfran International. Kimber was primarily responsible for direct and dealer sales, OEM account management and territory management. He also started Mayfran Mid-Atlantic Company in 1983 and founded HJN, an equipment installation company for conveyors and balers in the recycling/scrap markets, in 1984.

"We couldn't be more pleased to welcome Bob Kimber to the RUF US team," said Greg Tucholski, RUF US, Inc. "He brings a great deal of valuable experience and expertise and will be an excellent addition to the RUF metal team."
